HORDES OF STARVING RUSSIANS IN POLAND

Fleeing From Famine But Infection Is Feared May Follow Them

CAMPS CROWDED

Lenine Wires For Aid Says Cause Of All Is "Capitalist"

(Reuter's Service)

London, August 11.—A description of the famine in Russia, telegraphed by the Friends' Emergency Relief Committee's Mission at Baronowich, speaks of hordes of men, women and children pouring into Poland, involving grave danger of the spread of infection.

The Baronowich camp is equipped to handle 4,000 refugees weekly. Recently it has been called on to deal with 24,000. This has paralysed the facilities of the camp. Whole batches here have had to be let through without disinfection.

The Moscow correspondent of the Daily Herald telegraphs an appeal from Lenin addressed to the workers of the world, stating that the famine in several provinces is equal to that of 1891.

It describes the present situation as a terrible sequel to the country's superannuated framing methods and seven years of war "imposed upon the peasants and the workers by the capitalists of the world."

Notables Appeal For Aid In Russia's Need

(Reuter's Service)

London, August 10.—Numerous prominent personages, including Lord Birkenhead, the Archbishop of Canterbury, Lord Crewe, Mr. Asquith, Lord Robert Cecil, Field-Marshal Sir William Robertson, and leading members of the Labor party, have signed an appeal to the nation on behalf of Russia. The appeal declares that no nation suffered more terribly in the war than Russia, and none received so little of the healing gift of sympathy. It expresses the hope that "the broken links will be restored by common efforts to save life and alleviate pain."

King George Not To Add To Tax In These Hard Times

(Reuter's Service)

London, August 10.—In moving in the House of Commons the second reading of a bill authorising the Duchy of Lancaster to realise on capital to the amount of £100,000, and apply the proceeds to revenue, Mr. Austen Chamberlain made some interesting revelations. He said that His Majesty's civil list had shown a progressive deficit for several years. In 1919 the amount of this deficit was £24,500; in 1920 it was £45,000, and this year it would probably be greater despite stringent economies practised by His Majesty.

The Government, Mr. Chamberlain said, had seriously considered whether the House should not be invited to grant a temporary supplement, but the King, bearing in mind the serious state of the national finances, had, animated by public spirit, declined to agree to aid to the charges on public funds. (Cheers.)

The King would be prepared to see a material reduction in the ceremonial splendor associated with the tradition of the British Throne, but the Government, as the mouthpiece of Parliament and the people of the Empire, had advised His Majesty that the dignity of the Crown should be maintained.

Belfast Yard To Build Big Ship

(Reuter's Service)

London, August 10.—The keel has been laid at Belfast of the 36,000-tonner Statendam for the Holland-America Line. She is the biggest ship laid down since the war.

Messrs. Harland and Wolff are also building engines for twelve steamers of the same line; the hulls are being constructed in Holland.

MARCH OF EVENTS

BY BRUCE HOPPER

YESTERDAY'S minutes of the Supreme Council in Paris have all the sound and fury of a diplomatic tug-of-war. France declared herself irresistible in marshalling mathematics to prove the Silesian triangle divisible. Britain stood immovable on her solid base that the same triangle could not be split.

Today all is beautiful accord, and Premiers Lloyd George and Briand have two hearts that beat as one. It is not stated who won the tug-of-war, but the experts have been instructed to discover some way of dividing the ever troublesome triangle. In passing the Silesian buck to the technical staff, hoping its ingenuity will find the greatest common denominator for the Polo-Germano tangle, the Supreme Council admits that the problem is insoluble by political theorems.

* * *

BUT the experts have never failed to produce workable solutions, children of financial and scientific imaginative acumen. When Finland and Sweden aired their disagreement over possession of the Aland Islands, lying in the Baltic, the Supreme Council faced an impasse. The inhabitants claimed allegiance to Sweden, as 96.2 percent are of Swedish blood. But the islands had belonged to Russia since 1809, so there was a political claim to be considered.

The diplomats in despair told the experts to produce a key to turn the lock, which was a simple task for technical men. It was discovered by consulting the geological maps that the Aland Islands are a continuation of Finland. There was nothing to do but bow to the evidence in the formation of the earth, and the Aland Swedes are, therefore, placed definitely under Finnish sovereignty. And again science triumphs over sentiment.

While the experts assault the politically impregnable Silesian triangle the diplomats are enjoying a mental picnic discussing such easy questions as the trial of German war-criminals, provisioning famine-stricken Russia, the projected bolster to Austrian finance, and whether or not Germany is to be allowed to further flying science by experimenting with civil airplanes.

* * *

WITH an efficient corps of ready-to-think experts, waiting and eager to reshape the face of the earth according to the dictates of science, the Supreme Council should have a session as safe and sane as a lawn social. The question arises as to what philanthropist is providing the Corona cigars for the present meeting. It is not to be expected that diplomats can determine the exact medicine for international woes in an atmosphere other than that made fragrant by Havanas. The Corona is particularly adaptable to momentous deliberations, as shown by the results of that meeting at Spa when 80,000 francs worth of the diplomats' favorites were consumed. At the time there was no nicotine allowance on the budget, and the financial committee was embarrassed. No doubt such trifling expenses are now met by private contribution from cigar importers.

COLONEL Harvey, American ambassador to St. James, is "sitting in" at the Supreme Council, presumedly as a listening post for Washington. President Harding has expressed a wish to "helpfully co-operate," and yet continue the policy of abstention from participation in European affairs. Readers of the North American Review, who remember Colonel Harvey as editor, realise the mute agony of the journalist diplomat. To jibe and satirise with the editorial pen was his precious heritage, and now he cannot be expected to rejoice over the articulate limitations of the diplomatic pottage.

The colonel's rather talkative past suggests that we may anticipate some unofficial, and perhaps even unorthodox, remarks at the council table by America's soi disant mute observer.

Silesian Problem Nearing Solution Now the Triangle Can Be Split Assert French

Press Praises British Abandonment of Unit For Industrial Area—Poland Must Live Says M Briand—To Victors Belong The Spoils Is Dictum Of Council Regarding Turk and Greek War

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, August 10.—The French press unites in expressing satisfaction that Tuesday's debate set the Supreme Council on a road which ought rapidly to lead it to an agreement of the Upper-Silesian problem. Owing to the abandonment by the British delegation of the theory of the indivisibility of the "industrial triangle," the experts are permitted to distinguish between the districts which are economically separable, in each of which the results of the plebiscite will easily be determined.

This work of dissociation once achieved, says the Petit Parisien, will be relatively easy to trace a frontier line, and when this line is held there will no longer be an Upper-Silesian problem. It is believed that the labors of the experts, over whom M. Fromageot presides, may be completed either on Wednesday evening or Thursday morning.

CORDIAL CONVERSATION

At the conclusion of Tuesday's morning sitting M. Briand entertained Mr. Lloyd George, Lord Curzon and M. Loucheur at a luncheon at the Quai d'Orsay. This led to an extremely cordial conversation on the points of view held by the two Premiers.

In the course of a speech at the evening sitting, M. Briand said: "The Allies have decided to revive Poland, and it taking that decision they made themselves responsible for assuring her of the possibility of living. It was for this purpose that the Danzig corridor was created."

He urged that the fact that Upper Silesia had first of all been assigned by the Peace Conference to Poland gave ground for strong presumptions in her entitled to the spoils of victory," applied to the present occasion.

REMAIN NEUTRAL

The Council eventually decided that the Allies will maintain an attitude of strict neutrality in the Turco-Hellenic war, in which the Allied Governments will not intervene with any form of assistance involving the despatch of troops or arms or the furnishing of credits. Freedom of private trade will, however, not be interfered with. Thus private firms will be entitled to continue to supply war material to the Greeks and Turks. The Council decided to undertake a joint demarche in regard to the belligerents, with a view to ensuring the freedom of the Straits.

An important report was received by the Council, showing that Germany was satisfactorily fulfilling her obligations in respect of the handing over of arms. It appears that she has now only 22 big guns left, making over 50,000 surrendered or destroyed up to July 28.

Later in the day the Council discussed the Russian famine, and decided to appoint an international committee to collaborate with the American Red Cross in studying the possibilities of bringing aid to starving Russia.

Mr. Lloyd George said he had no admiration for the Soviet Government, but relief was impossible without its co-operation. For this purpose only the Allies should come to an arrangement with the Soviet.

Describing essential measures to cope with the Russian famine, as the result of his experiences of famines in India when he was Viceroy, Lord Curzon recommended, inter alia, the enlistment of the aid of the people of India and other places which had experience of famine.

An undoubted spirit of conciliation is now being manifested in contrast to the recent display of irritation. The British Premier's policy in holding the balance even greatly impressed his hearers.

It is anticipated that the Council will rise on Saturday.

Friendly and Cheerful Is Tone of Conference

(Reuter's Service)

Paris, Aug. 10.—Far from there being evidence of any strained feelings among the members of the committee of Upper Silesian experts, who resumed their labors this morning, the proceedings have been characterised by friendliness and a cheerful atmosphere. It is understood that good progress is being made, and it is believed that a solution of the question will shortly be reached.

Pending receipt of the committee's report, the Supreme Council today proceeded with the consideration of the Near-Eastern situation.

In the course of the discussion Mr. Lloyd George said the conditions had changed. The Treaty of Sevres had been torn up by the Allies at the instigation of the Turks, though the Greeks had been prepared to accept it and act upon it. He maintained, therefore, that the Greeks were entitled to proceed on the assumption that the Treaty no longer existed, and that M. Briand's dictum on a former action, viz. that "the victors were

German Press Praises Speech of Ll George

Berlin, August 10.—Mr. Lloyd George's speech in the Supreme Council is welcomed by the newspapers here. The Vorwaerts rejoices at his repudiation of the French "sabre-rattling." The Allgemeine Zeitung says:

"This is the first important news from Paris. It proves that Mr. Lloyd George is abiding by his pre-conference view."

The Deutsche Zeitung describes the speech as "extraordinarily able and impressive," and adds "at length a power has had the nerve to baulk France's violence."

The Deutsche Tageszeitung remarks that "Mr. Lloyd George's candor as regards France was refreshing."

The Boersen Courier says: "It is premature to speak of a British victory, but Mr. Lloyd George has achieved an undeniable success."

KEMAL CRUSHED; GREEKS PLAN TO GET GUARANTEES

(Reuter's Service)

Athens, Aug. 10.—It is officially announced that operations are progressing in the direction of Ismidt with a view to a resumption of the offensive.

Athens, August 10.—According to a semi-official communication, the Minister of War, M. Theotokis, in reviewing the military situation, said the Kemalist army had been totally crushed, and was no longer of any military importance.

In regard to the prospect of peace, M. Theotokis declared that they did not wish to repeat the mistakes of the past. They would demand guarantees that the enemy would be unable to attack Greece again, and also to secure the liberated populations against further oppression.

The newspapers announce that the General Staff has decided that the territories outside the delimitation of the Turkish Treaty and at present occupied by Greek troops shall be placed under an independent military administration, and made subject to Greek laws.

SOVIET TO LET GO OF URQUHART'S MINING CLAIMS

(Reuter's Service)

London, August 11.—A relaxation of hostile Soviet policy against foreign interests is indicated by the fact that the Lenin Government has invited Mr. Leslie Urquhart, chairman of the Russo-Asiatic Consolidated Company, Limited, who will be accompanied by five technical experts, to proceed to Moscow to pursue the prefatory negotiations started with M. Krassin, the Soviet envoy in London, with a view to return to the company its Siberian properties. It is expected that an agreement will be concluded in a few weeks.

The Financial Times understands that while Mr. Urquhart's visit will be primarily concerned with his own company's properties, he will be able to protect other important British interests in Russia. The newspaper believes that all future agreements will be modelled on the settlement which the Russo-Asiatic Company is able to arrange.

(Note: The company in question has claims amounting to fifty-six millions sterling against the Soviet Government, which confiscated the Company's enormous properties.)

Typhoon Nearing, Says Weather Man

The China Sea is in for a brisk time beginning today, and Shanghai is apt to get a share of the kick-up if the typhoon prognostications of yesterday run to form.

Yesterday's reports showed the storm, a very violent one, to be crossing the Loochoos, maintaining a Northwesterly direction which should bring it off the Saddles today. Gales are to be expected between Shanghai and Nagasaki, the report states. A second typhoon, signalled East of Guam on Wednesday is following in the track of the first.

No Administrator To Act Here For Banque Industrielle

Situation To Be Handled At Paris, According To Notices Received

Official instructions were received yesterday by the local branch of the Banque Industrielle de Chine from the Paris headquarters that M. Benoit administrator appointed by the commercial court there, will officiate for all the bank's business.

This interpretation of the transactional settlement is taken to mean that the local branches of the bank will not have individual administrators as formerly supposed. The accounts and balance sheets from each branch will be forwarded to Paris, where action will be taken by the administrator to settle with the creditors and depositors.

Announcement was issued yesterday by the Manager of the Shanghai branch of the Banque Industrielle de Chine that upon instructions issued from the head office at Paris a complete balance sheet of the accounts of the Shanghai branch will be made up as at July 25, which is the date of [illegible] Commerce de la Seine" authorising a petition for a transactional settlement and the nomination of an administrator.

It is stated that creditors of the bank will receive individual statements of their accounts which should be returned bearing confirmation of correctness and comments. These returned statements are to be forwarded to the head office.

(Reuter's Service)

The Hague, August 11.—Replying to a question in the Second Chamber, the Foreign Minister declared that he did not know whether the formal invitations to the Washington Conference had yet been issued, but that the matter was receiving the attention of the Government in view of the position of the Netherlands as one of the Asiatic Powers.

New Gun Marvel May Shoot 5 Tons 200 To 300 Miles

A gun that, in the opinion of Dr. Miller Reese Hutchinson, noted American inventor, "will make war too terrible for nations to engage in it," has been invented by John Temple, a British subject now residing in the United States. The invention is now in the form of a small rivetting gun, which was demonstrated in New York before a group of distinguished scientists, inventors and ordnance experts.

Its proposed giant counterpart will employ the same principle used in the small rivetting gun; and the monster war weapon, the experts declare, will be able to hurl a five-ton projectile from 200 to 300 miles.

The rivetting gun actually fires steel slugs into steel plates. It is smokeless and almost noiseless. With the new rivetting gun it is possible to rivet bolts into a ship's hull without dry-docking the vessel, as the rivetting can be done by a diver under water.

SCOTTISH COAL TOO HIGH ASSERT BIG CONSUMERS

(Reuter's Service)

London, August 10.—An extraordinary sight is being witnessed on the Scottish railways, where miles of unwanted coal-laden wagons are alongside hundreds of empty goods trucks. This is the outcome of large consumers refusing to pay the high prices demanded for coal which, they contend, are thrice more than trade conditions can stand. Domestic coal is also being severely boycotted. Ironmasters refuse to operate their blast furnaces.

There is a famine in pig-iron. Locomotive builders in Glasgow have reduced the weekly hours by sixteen owing to the cancellation of orders. Hundreds of miners are again workless.

COAL PRICES REDUCED

London, Aug. 10.—Cardiff distributors have given notice of a reduction in the price of household coal of eight shillings per ton.

Prices are rapidly slumping at Newcastle. Steam coal was yesterday offered at 28s. 6d per ton as compared with 42s. 6d. last week. Good hunkers are now obtainable at 30s. a ton.

COAL SENT HAMBURG

WATER FAMINE IN FRENCHTOWN DUE TO SILTING

Cleaning Of Filters Expected To Be Finished In Three Days

The water shortage in the French Concession, which has occasioned much language and gnashing of teeth among residents of that Settlement during the past few days, is due to accumulation of silt in the three filters of the Tunkadou reservoir, according to a statement by the waterworks department yesterday.

Workmen are engaged in cleaning the filters, it was said, and the work should be finished within three days. Meanwhile, consumers are advised to store up water in pails and tubs at night, when the flow is almost normal. The heavy drain on the restricted supply in the daytime, owing to the hot weather, causes the taps to emit a sight of empty nothingness from bath time in the morning until nightfall in most parts of the Concession.

WU PEI-FU DECLINING OFFICE; IS NOW GOING

Much Blood Shed Is His Reason, But Will "Reconstruct"

WANG HAS AID

Anhwei Tuchun Offers To Help If Deposed Man Will Resist

(Staff Wire To The China Press)

Hankow, August 11.—Developments of the past forty-eight hours have given rise to the belief that any immediate resumption of hostilities is unlikely, and it is stated that General Hsiao Yao-nan is opposing projects that may entail actual fighting.

Word has been received here that Wu Pei-fu has refused to take the Super-Tuchunate offered him. Whether in fear of Chang Tso-lin or not has not been learned, though the reason Wu gives is that the office has cost too much bloodshed.

The appointment of General Hsiao to the post of Tuchun of Hupeh has not met with the general approval of the allied Northern forces and many of the leaders are frankly disappointed at the turn of affairs but they are without resource for they are unable to fight General Hsiao and they cannot well effectively resist his authority. Some form of compromise is believed to be brewing.

One significant development of the day was a letter to the deposed General Wang Chan-yuan from General Chang Wen-sung, Tuchun of Anhwei urging General Wang to resist the order for his removal. In this communication it is said General Chang strongly urges the former Hupeh Tuchun to reassemble his broken forces and march them down the river toward the Hupeh promising in the event this is done to give aid with "rescuing reinforcements" which General Chang says, are being mobilised.

Reports from Hunan state that General Chao Heng-ti has made a demand upon the Chamber of Commerce of Changsha for $200,000 and a quantity of food supplies for his troops. It is reported also that General Chao is urging General Hsiao Yao-nan to declare independent self-government for the province of Hupeh.

Former Tuchun Not Yet Accepted by Hupeh

(Staff Wire To The China Press)

Hankow, August 10 (11 p.m.)—General Tang Shang-ming, former Tuchun of Hunan, arrived in Hankow today. His appointment to the Civil Governorship of Hupeh has been agreed to by Peking, but the leaders of the allied Hupeh-Hunan armies are contesting for the post.

Tang's efforts to secure the post will include the signing of an armistice at once between the opposing forces and an offer to his two principal contenders of the office, Generals Chiang Tso-pin and Kung Keng of the offices of the Defense Commissioners of Western Hupeh and Southern Hupeh respectively. Both Chiang and Kung will be allowed to enlarge their military forces to a division each.

Wu Pei-fu Declines High Office But Goes To It

Peking, August 11.—Because of dissatisfaction on the part of Chang Tso-lin, the Fengtien warlord, over the appointment, General Wu Pei-fu, newly created super-tuchun of Hupeh and Hunan, has declined to assume office of Inspector-General of the two Hu provinces. In a statement issued yesterday, he said that he did not desire to take an office which apparently had been given to him after great deal of bloodshed.

However, General Wu has consented to proceed to the scene of activities and participate in the "reconstruction of Hupeh." Meanwhile Chang Tso-lin has ordered the preparation of railroad carriages for himself, his staff and bodyguards to proceed to Peking to hold a conference with the executives on the Hupeh situation.

At the same time, Chang has recalled Chang Ching-hui, his aide, from Manchuli Station, indicating that he is abandoning the much discussed Mongolian Expedition altogether. A significant move on his part is the tendering of his resignation as Inspector-General of Manchuria.

Chang's resignation is interpreted either as a real weakening of his power in Manchuria or a defiance towards Peking's bold move in appointing a lieutenant of his rival, Tsao Kun, to an office as high as his own. Chang has been having a great deal of trouble with his own subordinates lately. His squabble with Chiang Kwei-ti, veteran military man of the Northern faction and tartar-general of Jehol, is not yet over. Chiang insists on the exclusion of Fengtien troops from his sphere of influence.

Chang Tso-lin has also recently wired Peking, demanding the dismissal of the Kirin Tuchun, Sun Li-chang, who is alleged to be implicated in the recent attempt to murder Chang by Keng Yu-tien, who is now a prisoner in Chang's dungeon.

General Chao Heng-ti, the commander of the Hunanese troops in Hupeh, has circulated a telegram calling a constitutional convention in Hankow to be attended by five delegates from each district. The delegates first will enact a Provincial Constitution and then elect the necessary executive officers from among themselves.

Representatives of the various local organisations in Hupeh called on General Hsiao Yao-nan, the new Tuchun, on Wednesday and asked him to maintain the peace and order of the province. They also favored the arrest of Wang's lieutenants Wei Lien-fang, Hu Yeh-kung and Kuo Kan-ching in order to conduct an inquiry into the embezzlement charges made against him by the people of Hupeh. The retention of Wang's property in Hupeh in order to prepare for its possible confiscation was also advocated.

The fall of Wang Chuan-yuan has given the people of Hupeh another opportunity to clamor for the abolition of the tuchunate, which was advocated sometime ago by Tuchun Lu Yung-hsiang of Chekiang but was never carried out even by himself. The Hupeh residents have addressed lengthy telegrams to General Wu Pei-fu and his henchman, Hsiao Yao-nan, to introduce civil administration in their province.

As soon as General Wu arrives in Hankow, it is planned to deal with the following questions:

1. The disposition of the Hunan invading troops.
2. The disbanding of the troops formerly under Wang Chuan-yuan.
3. The self-government movement in Hupeh and Hunan.

Hsiao is expected to assume his new post of Tuchun of Hupeh upon the arrival of General Wu.

A Japanese press agency is the authority for the report that Wang Chuan-yuan will be appointed Tuchun of Shantung in deference to the wishes of Tuchun Chang Tso-lin of Fengtien, who has long expressed dissatisfaction over Tien Chung-yu, the present incumbent. Tien will be given an Irish promotion, it says.

The extraordinary session of the Southern Parliament will bring up the question of declaring war on Peking at its meeting in Canton today when all the Southern executives will be present and Dr. Sun Yat-sen is expected to address the assembly.

TRAFFIC COURT IN RECORD DAY; PAY HEAVY FINES

Special Tribunal Imposes Stiff Penalties On Speeders

The special Traffic Court, with Assessor Hutchison and Magistrate Loh presiding, had the heaviest day since its inception yesterday, when it was faced with a docket of 64 cases, most of them involving motor cars.

Heavy fines were assessed in a number of instances, there being a noticeable increase in the number of charges of speeding and improper driving. A chauffeur convicted of speeding on the Yangtszepoo Road on the night of July 30 was fined $100, with the alternative of a month in jail. Another, who drove across the Garden Bridge at 30 miles an hour at 1 a.m. July 31 and passed on the wrong side of another car, was fined $50 and was warned that another appearance in court would mean imprisonment. For driving past other cars on Bubbling Well Road, a third driver was fined $50 and a similar amount was assessed in the case of a chauffeur charged with improperly driving a car on Nanking Road, the court commenting in the latter case that the man's license should be suspended as he has a bad record.

Foreign witnesses appeared in several cases, one expressing an interesting opinion on the resiliency of the world's best known car. Mr. A. A. Ewing, the witness in question, stated that on July 26 as he was alighting from a tramcar the defendant chauffeur drove past so precipitately as to strike him on the heel as he was dashing for the footpath. The driver went on without taking notice, but the complainant was sure that he must have known the car struck something as no one in a Ford could fail to feel such a shock. The driver was penalised $5.

The pilot of a car which a Mr. Harding testified shot out of Kiukiang road into Th'bet road with such velocity as nearly to crash into another car in which the complainant was riding was set back $30.

Two drivers who indulged in a speed competition on Yangtszepoo Road, attaining a rate of about 40 miles an hour, paid $25 each for the experience. And so on and so on.

'Call Off Your Dog' Pleads France To Britain But Gets Same Answer

(Reuter's Service)

London, August 10.—In the House of Commons today, replying to a question, Mr. Harmsworth, Under-Secretary to the Foreign Office, said that the French Government had protested against the Safeguarding of Industries Bill on the ground that it would universally affect French exports. The British Government replied that it was impossible to give a full reply until the subject had been discussed. The attention of France, however, was called to the recent increase in the French tariff introduced with the avowed object of safeguarding industries against foreign competition.

Five Charged With Assaulting Police

Five Chinese appeared in the Mixed Court yesterday on the charge of assaulting two Chinese police constables. Four of the defendants are further charged with being members of an organised gang of loafers who frequent the various jetties for the purpose of committing thefts. Mr. H. D. Rodger appeared for the latter four and Mr. L. K. Kentwell for the fifth accused.

The defense countered in the case with an insinuation that the principal complainant, who has been in hospital since the night of the attack, August 3, was frequenting one of the wharves off Broadway to exact toll from opium smugglers. The C.P.C., who was in plain clothes when attacked, was cut with an axe or knife. In the witness box the complainant stated that he was assaulted by 40 or 50 persons, all of whom he declared to be loafers. On cross-examination however, he stated that he didn't know whether they were loafers or not, but he knew that they "all had businesses." He had previously been attached to Wayside station, he said, and the shouting out of this fact by some of the accused had been the signal for the attack.

The second complainant is alleged to have been injured while effecting the arrest of the defendants. The case was adjourned one week.

Melilla Report Says Enemy Grows Less; Fear For Gen'l. Navarro

(Reuter's Service)

Madrid, Aug. 9.—An official communique from Melilla states that hostilities have ceased, and that the enemy forces appear to be less numerous. On the other hand, other reports represent General Navarro's position as more critical, and assert that he and his men depend for water on ice conveyed to them daily by Spanish aeroplanes.

A gruesome story with regard to the fate of General Sylvestre comes from Tangier. It states that a party of Arabs is displaying the Spanish General's head on the end of a spear.

Status Of British Children Born In Japan Discussed

(Reuter's Service)

London, August 10.—In the House of Commons today Mr. Gershom Stewart (Wirral) called attention to an appeal by British subjects in Japan that British nationality may be assured their descendants if they registered at birth with the British Embassy and so continued to register themselves throughout their residence in Japan. He also asked whether the registration at the British Consulate would assure the same status in the event of a British child being born at some distance from the Embassy.

Mr. Harmsworth, Under-Secretary to the Foreign Office, replied that the Government was favorably considering the matter.

Still Probe Cause Of Disappearance Of Student Chen

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, August 8.—The Chinese Minister at Mexico has informed the Government that, in accordance with its instructions, he has appointed Mr. Tao-Lu-chien, the Second Secretary of the legation at Mexico, to go to Havana and investigate personally the disappearance of Mr. Chen Kuang-ying, the missing consular student. Notwithstanding Mr. Tao's recent refusal to undertake this mission, he has now consented to do so.

Mr. Chen's relatives recently petitioned the Waichiaopu, requesting that such members of the Chinese Legation staff at Havana as may be open to suspicion in connection with his disappearance should be placed under arrest by the Cuban police pending a legal investigation of the case. The Waichiaopu has replied that there is no precedent for such an action; but that, should the investigation result in casting suspicion on any member of the Legation staff, he will be placed on trial in a Chinese court.

FRUIT AND THE CHILDREN
A Word of Warning.

Sound ripe fruit is good for children, but damaged or over-ripe fruit is exceedingly dangerous, especially at this time of year, causing diarrhoea, dysentery, colic, indigestion and worms.

When you have reason to suspect that your child has eaten fruit of a doubtful character the best course is to administer a dose of Baby's Own Tablets at once, for these Tablets quickly but gently cleanse the stomach and bowels, and can be given with absolute safety even to the youngest or most delicate infant.

Baby's Own Tablets, the Canadian children's remedy, are also a specific for teething troubles, constipation, colds, and croup. They bring calm, natural, health-giving sleep and promote regular development. From chemists, or direct and post free at 60 cents the vial from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., 96 Szechuen Road, Shanghai.

MONGOLIA NOW IN REDS' HANDS SAYS JAPANESE

Korenaga Doubts If Heralded Expedition Will Be Made By Chang

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Tokio, August 6.—A Moji despatch received by the Tokio Nichi Nichi credits Lieut.-Colonel Korenaga, just back from Chita, with the following statement regarding the conditions prevailing there:

"The situation in Mongolia is not clearly known because of the imperfect system of communications. The anti-Bolshevik troops in Mongolia appear to have suffered a heavy defeat in the district between Maimaicheng and Kiakehte in their recent encounter with the Bolsheviks.

"The Mongolians were led to believe, in view of the superior position that the Bolsheviks have come to command over the anti-Bolsheviks, that the Bolsheviks are too strong for the Mongolians to offer any resistance, and they were only too ready to surrender upon the Bolshevik intrusion into the Mongolian quarters.

"Mongolia has thus fallen entirely into the hand of the Bolsheviks. It is a great question whether General Chang Tso-lin will really carry out his expedition to Mongolia.

"At Tsitsihar the situation is generally tranquil within the city, but once outside, one is subject to serious danger from the attack of bandits and other outlaws who infest the entire districts.

"It is a fact that the Chita Government wants to negotiate with the Japanese Government for the opening of economic intercourse. But the difficulty is that Chita has practically nothing to offer for commercial transactions. It has neither goods nor money."

CHINA NO EASY PICKINGS, SAYS TRADE JOURNAL

Condemns Crude Idea Of It As "Get Rich Quick" Paradise

(Reuter's Service)

London, August 10.—The financial papers publish leading articles calling attention to the prospects of trade expansion in China. The Financial News describes as mistaken the crude idea that China offers a free field for European methods, and is a Tom Tiddler's ground for concessionaires. It suggests that co-operative working with the Consortium ought to produce mutually advantageous results in particular spheres of activity.

The Financier dwells on the high standing of Chinese bonds, particularly 1896 five percent which are quoted only three points below the British War Loan. The paper regards this fact as the highest testimony to China's integrity as a borrower.

OBSERVER GOES MAD IN PLANE; ATTACKS PILOT

(Reuter's Service)

London, August 10.—The observer went mad and attacked the pilot of an aeroplane above Aldershot today. The pilot after a desperate fight managed to land with only a slight crash. He was re-attacked on the ground by the madman, whom some men of the aerodrome finally overpowered.

The pilot was Paul Bulman of the Experimental Section of the Royal Aircraft Establishment. He was undertaking an altitude test in which oxygen was being used. The observer became insensible, possibly through a flaw in the apparatus. Bulman, alarmed, began to descend.

Suddenly he received a blow on the head and found the observer temporarily unbalanced. The latter apparently recovered half an-hour after being overpowered on the ground.

A DOZEN SHANGHAI ERRORS GIVE SECOND GAME OF SERIES TO NINTH CAVALRY; SCORE 8-3

Next Game Set For Saturday At 3:30 p.m.; Promises Better Baseball; Players Say They've Shot Their Wad In Bungles; Now For The Bingles

A comedy of baseball errors coupled with that old-time fault of not hitting them where they 'aint gave the Ninth Cavalry nine its second successive win over Shanghai yesterday afternoon. There was a negro pitcher named Miller, too, who hurled over 15 strikeouts, who figured muchly in the counting of the final total.

The comedy, staged in nine acts, became better, funnier and even grotesque as the time to the final curtain progressed. The scorer counted up eight errors for the local men when his trusty pencil broke. It was too much. The final score was 8 to 3.

Miller walked about seven locals, but that was nothing. They counteracted each and all of those seven free passes, by standing up to the new Goodyear pan and watching grooved strikes slip over, for 15 outs. Miller had 'em fooled with his seven passes. They thought each next ball would be wide or high or low, and they were called out while they waited and thought.

Shanghai won two runs in the first inning by two walks and Smith's single. They got another in the fifth when Wilhoit took first on a dropped third strike, stole second, and scored on Bills' hit. But that was all. Five hits scattered all over a nine-inning comedy do not usually make for a win. And it didn't yesterday.

Shanghai's defense was awful. There were ten or a dozen misplays committed. They threw the game away. The visitors loafed in the latter innings. It was too easy.

However, as someone said in the dressing room last night, all of the bad playing has been done; it is all out of the local players' systems. They are ready now to settle down to their usual winning game. They are certain of winning Saturday.

Saturday's game will commence at 3:30 o'clock. It will be preceded by an exhibition of shadow or pantomine baseball by the cavalrymen. They are said to be extremely clever at that stage ball stuff. It would be worth coming 15 minutes early to witness.

Dennison, it is hoped, will be out of the hospital and ready to pitch on Saturday. He is reported as progressing nicely. Mal Maloney even might be filling that hole at third. At any rate the gang will be playing ball, something which they did not do yesterday.

FIRST INNING

Cavalry.—Lumkins got on when Wilhoit registered Error No. 1 by fumbling Bills' peg from short. Savage sacrificed him to second. Terry booted Jordan's grounder giving him a base. Ladd and Roeser tried to run Lumkins down between third and home but Roeser finally muffed a throw and Lumkins scored. Jordan stole, and scored on Martin's infield grounder. Evans followed with a hit over Ladd's head and Martin came home for the third run. Evans was caught on the steal by a pretty peg to Bills. Pearson flied out to Wilhoit. One hit, three runs.

Shanghai.—Merrill went out Rowlett to first. Wilhoit walked. Bills also drew a pass forcing Cy ahead of him. Miller looked wild. Roeser was out at first by Barnett unassisted, advancing Wilhoit and Bills to second and third. Smith came through with a drive to center scoring the two base-runners. Ladd fanned. One hit, two runs.

SECOND INNING

Cavalry.—Barnett was an easy out. Crow to first. Rowlett singled through Terry but died on base when Miller struck out and Lumkins forced him out at second by Bills unassisted. One hit, no runs.

Shanghai.—Pruitt got to first when Martin threw his little bingle low and wild to Barnett. Miller and Martin each expected the other to field the ball. Martin grabbed it finally and threw it away. Crow and Terry fanned and Miller threw Merrill out at first. No hits, no runs.

THIRD INNING

Cavalry.—Savage was out when his grounder bounced back and hit him on the shins. Terry threw Jordan out at first. Martin tripled to left against the golf club building. Merrill did well to field the ball back and hold him at third. Evans followed with a drive to left for one base scoring Martin. He stole. Pearson doubled to left and Evans tallied. Merrill was busy at this stage. Barnett got on and Pearson scored when Bills booted one, but Rowlett was an easy out, Ladd to Wilhoit. Three hits, three runs.

Shanghai.—Wilhoit made first when Martin dropped the third strike, but was caught off base Martin to Barnett. Bills was out Barnett unassisted and Roeser fanned. No hits, no runs.

FOURTH INNING

Cavalry.—Miller was thrown out by Bills. Lumkins drove one far out into right field, to the race track for the circuit. Savage flied out to Smith and Crow threw Jordan out at first. One hit, one run.

Shanghai.—Smith struck out. Ladd walked. Sperry fanned. Crow singled to center advancing Ladd, but they both died when Terry was out for the third strikeout of the inning. One hit, no runs.

FIFTH INNING

Cavalry.—Martin drove one at Ladd who gathered it up nicely but seemed to suffer a kink in his arm. He couldn't throw to first. Evans fanned. Pearson was thrown out Ladd to first. Barnett singled to Bills, and took second on a steal when Bills dropped Roeser's throw. Ladd threw Rowlett out at first. One hit, one run.

Shanghai.—Merrill and Wilhoit fanned, but Cy got on when Savage dropped the third strike. It was Cy's second life on a dropped third strike. He stole second. Bills singled to right scoring Wilhoit. Roeser drove a deep one to left which Duff got after a hard run and a clever juggle. Smith singled to Pearson, advancing Bills. Ladd fanned. Two hits, one run.

SIXTH INNING

Cavalry.—Miller popped one up between third and the box. There seemed to be no one there. Hendrickson finally picked the ball up and shot it to first for an out. Lumkins struck out, and Hendrickson grabbed off Savage's foul fly after a hard run for the third out. No hits, no runs.

Shanghai.—Pruitt walked and stole but was caught off second Miller to Rowlett. Crow and Terry fanned. No hits, no runs.

SEVENTH INNING

Cavalry.—Jordan got on when Bills booted his grounder Martin's single to left put him on second. Bills muffed Evans Texas leaguer on the third base line, but saved himself from an error by getting Jordan at third on a forceout. Pearson went safe on a fielder's choice but his grounder forced Evans at second, Bills to Crow. Crow then threw Barnett out at first for the third out. One hit, no runs.

Shanghai.—Merrill singled through Miller. He stole second. And he stole third. Wilhoit, however, fanned; Bills flied out to Barnett and Roeser struck out for the third out. One hit, no runs.

EIGHTH INNING

Cavalry.—Rowlett struck out. Miller got on when Hendrickson threw wide to first. He promptly stole second. Lumkins stopped an inshoot with his coco, and took first. Savage flied out to Merrill, and Jordan line-drove to Bills. No hits, no runs.

Shanghai.—Smith went out

World Seeks Opponent For Jack; Gibbons And Brennan Appear Best

Willard Unlikely to Try Real Come-Back; Fulton Wants Chance, But Previous Miserable Showing Eliminates Him

Now that Jack Dempsey has effaced Georges Carpentier from the list of rivals, the sportive world looks around for some one who can give him his next fight.

Bill Brennan, Tom Gibbons—these two are the most conspicuous among the white battlers in carnest today. Frank Moran is far too old, and certainly too poor a battler to be figured to have even the slightest chance with Dempsey. The youthful Bob Martin is a good man, and is coming along nicely, but he must learn a little more about the ring game, must get more experience and overcome certain fauith before he can be seriously considered.

Its doubtful if Jess Willard ever will try a come-back; he's probably beyond forty now. He hasn't had a glove on in two years. He has fought only three or four times in eight years. He showed in the battle in Toledo that he was a poor champion—and a mark for Dempsey. So he can be disregarded.

FULTON WANTS CHANCE

Fred Fulton seems to want another chance. But it's unlikely that any promoter will match him again with the champion. The tall plasterer showed absolutely nothing against Dempsey except ability to go down and out in near to record time. He seemed beaten before he got into the ring. And certainly if he was afraid before he was whipped then, he surely would be more so after taking a beating.

All of which swings us back to Gibbons and Brennan. No one knows just how good Gibbons really is. But he must be good if he can knock over a dozen men in a row, including Willie Meehan the man Dempsey couldn't stop. Gibbons is big enough and strong enough to have a chance with any man in the world. He's fast, he's clever, he surely can hit and he can take it—if necessary.

BRENNAN A TOUGH BIRD

Then there's Bill Brennan, one of those real tough birds if ever there was one. He gave Dempsey two of the toughest—if not the very toughest—fights of his career. He went down and out both times, but not before he put up a terrific battle—and never in either of those fights was the result a definite thing until the last blow had been struck.

Dempsey whipped Brennan in Milwaukee a few years ago in six rounds. The battle ended with Brennan on one foot. Some way during the fight his ankle had been broken. Some persons says one of Dempsey's blows to the head did it; others claim Brennan stumbled and twisted it. But, anyway, Brennan had a fracture which, of course, ended his chance for victory.

MADE DEMPSEY MISS

In the return battle Dempsey had the fight of his life to win from Bill. The Chicago heavyweight made him miss again and again with the powerful leads. And all the while Bill stepped in and beat a tattoo on Dempsey's face. Several times during the fight, Bill shook up the champion.

The affair had gone into the twelfth with a mixed feeling among the crowd. There was no unity of thought as to who was the leader in points. But Dempsey settled things with a crashing blow to the body—and so ended another knockout to his record.

Surely the selection of Dempsey's next white opponent seems to be between Gibbons and Brennan. And, if public sentiment has anything to do with it, the chances favor Brennan, the man who twice failed—but still figures as a world's championship possibility

AUSTRALIANS SCORE 297 FOR FOUR WICKETS IN ONE DAY'S PLAY IN MATCH AGAINST KENT

Macartney Counts 133 Not Out For A Season's Aggregate Of 2,000 Runs, Winning Rank With Premier Cricket Batsman Of England

(Reuter's Service)

London, August 11.—Rain interfered in the first day's play of the Australians' match against Kent at Canterbury today, and stumps were drawn at 5:40. Nevertheless, some 10,000 spectators were present. The Australians batted all day on a wicket which at the outset was fast, and scored 297 for four wickets. Armstrong, whose innings was marked by some powerful driving, hit up 132 without giving a chance, and Macartney contributed 133 not out. The latter batsman brought up his aggregate for the season to over 2,000 runs, and now ranks with Mead of Hampshire, who was the first player to reach that figure.

Pirate Fans May Keep Balls Hit Into Stands

Pittsburgh, July 9.—Fans who attend games at the national baseball park here may keep balls knocked into the stands without fear of being molested by policemen, according to an order issued yesterday by Robert J. Alderdice, Director of Public Safety.

Director Alderdice made the ruling following threatened damage suits against policemen who placed three fans under arrest for refusing to throw balls back onto the diamond.

Policemen placed in the park are there to preserve order and to protect the public, the director said. Hereafter any action taken against fans for refusing to give up balls must be taken by park employees, Alderdice said.

TWO SURREY MEN PICKED TO FILL ENGLAND'S TEAM

Hitch A Fast Bowler And The Hard Hitting Sandham Will Fill Out Team

London, August 10.—In addition to the players mentioned in a recent cable, Hitch and Sandham, both of Surrey, have been invited to attend at the Oval, where the fifth test match opens on Saturday. The English team will thus be selected from among the following: Major Hon. L. H. Tennyson (captain); P. G. H. Fender; J. W. H. T. Douglas; Woolley; Mead; Brown; Russell; Tyldesley (Ernest); Parkin; Hallows; Hearne; Parker; Hitch, and Sandham.

(BY GOOGLIE)

Two new men have been invited to be in evidence for the fifth and last test match between England and Australia. A day or so ago the composition of the English team was discussed in these columns, and so it only remains to say a word or so on the two newcomers.

Hitch, the Surrey fast bowler has been invited to be in readiness. This is undoubtedly a fine choice. It is probable that he will not know if he is to play until the morning of the match; but if the weather is good, and the wicket is hard, he ought to prove a thorn in the Australians' side, and I shouldn't be surprised if his fast deliveries, coming in with a very low flight do not upset the opposing batsmen.

Sandman, the other player to be asked to be ready, is also a Surrey man. If Hitch is included, Sandman will be there as well, as he is one of those hard hitters who come off when the wicket is as fast as Hitch likes it to be.

Sporting Editor's Letter Box

Sporting Editor, THE CHINA PRESS

Dear Sir: At tiffin time today I met Lieut. Waddell, Manager of the 9th Cavalry Team, and naturally we held a post mortem on yesterday's game. During the course of the conversation he expressed surprise at the criticism of Brad Crow in "Fan's" open letter to Cy Wilhoit, remarking that with six assists, two put-outs and one error, in a fast game, a second baseman could hardly be considered "lamentably weak." Lt. Waddell considered the criticism of "Fan" pretty rough on Crow and, as he stated, entirely uncalled for.

As manager of the 9th Cavalry ball team, we must concede that Lieut. Waddell has at least a slight knowledge of baseball, and as he is a disinterested party, as far as Brad's ability as a ball player is concerned, I believe his opinion is entitled to consideration.

As manager of the Shanghai Amateur Baseball team I feel it is up to me to rally to the defense of one of the team who probably will feel rather embarrassed at the criticism of his abilities as a ball player. This letter is not meant as a bait for an extended argument in your columns but is intended to call the attention of all your readers to the fact that Brad Crow has never claimed to be a big leaguer. He is, however, a clean hard playing amateur, always on the job, unless prevented by illness or business, out to boost the game and give the fans the best he has, playing solely for the love of the game. He is very popular not only with the fans but also with his team mates who realise that he is of the true sporting type, always willing to give way to a better player, and who resent what they consider a rather harsh criticism of a good, clean baseball player's ability.

I fully realise that fans are cold blooded and that a ball player is always liable to criticism, but why elaborate on one individual in particular.

Trusting you may find space for my remarks, I am, Yours truly,

J. H. ROSS, Manager.

Shanghai Amateur Baseball Club.

Miller to first. Hendrickson walked and stole second. Sperry also walked. They both advanced when Terry took a hot pitched ball on the spine. Merrill, with the bases full struck out. No hits, no runs.

NINTH INNING

Cavalry.—Duff was out Terry to first. Evans got on by that uncertain route, wild throw, third base to Wilhoit. He went to second unopposed, and stole third. He tried even to steal home, but Roeser had the ball waiting for him for the second out. Pearson got on after Hendrickson's boot, but after overrunning the base was caught off Hendrickson to Wilhoit. No hits, no runs.

Shanghai.—Wilhoit walked. Bills flied out to center. Wilhoit went to second but was caught out Martin to Pearson to Evans. Roeser walked, and Smith struck out. No hits, no runs.

Comments On The Game

Yep, it was a rotten game from a baseball standpoint—

• • •

But the fans had a lot of fun and so did the players, after it had gone far enough to become evident that nothing but a Comedy of Errors could be expected.

• • •

It was good comedy, too, with everyone taking a hand—and a foot—in it. Incidentally, there were some feet represented by shoeleather casings.

• • •

The soldiers played baseball as long as they felt it to be necessary. Then they played horse.

• • •

Hardly a crab snapped a claw at players, or more wonderful still, at those valiant heroes Jimmy Logan and Ray Bunn who risked their lives and reputations in judicial capacities.

• • •

Because he wore out his pencil the heavyweight who does the serious thinking about the game and builds the box scores was unable to register more than eight errors against Shanghai.

• • •

Terry, who did his durndest and pitched a game that might have been a whole lot worse if it had not been for the football interludes with handball trimmings, doesn't deserve such a deal.

• • •

Commentator counted thirteen but as his arithmtic lessons were taken in a bakeshop he had to quit then.

• • •

Miller, pitching for the visitors, had Shanghai's star swatsmen with one foot in the waterbucket and the other on third base.

• • •

Say man, that boy has speed. And his control is of the variety that makes a bombproof funk hole the foundest thing a batter is of. At that, he registered fifteen strikeouts—some of them while the boys at the plate were looking for a safe place to hide from his untamed ones.

• • •

Barnett, the lanky substitute who is playing first for the soldiers, registered as the Human Megaphone and kept the stands laughing with his antics. It's a bet he's a star in the Fried Chicken and Corn Pone League. Every disjointed gangling move was a picture that spelled Dixie. And he had a lot of fun out of his horseplay and roared comments; but not as much fun as did the other players and the fans.

• • •

Speaking of the poor benighted umps. It was shown by a study of this year's rules that Jimmy Logan was wholly right in his decision Wednesday that when a ball hits a player's bat when he is trying to get out of the way it counts as a foul strike and not as a dead ball as under the old system.

• • •

Roeser was in the game every minute, won his place in the error column and capped the climax by again registering as a picture of hard luck when he started a long drive for the "Nineteenth Hole" and saw Duff do a baloon ascension, knock the pill earthward with his glove and recover it before it landed. The same thing happened to the fast Shanghai catcher Wednesday.

• • •

No game today—but watch that bunch of Shanghai wild men come back to life tomorrow at 3:30 o'clock.

• • •

They say they'll leave the cavalrymen their sabers but thassall.

In the Matter of Registration of Transfer or Loss of Treasury Bills

NOTICE is hereby given to the public that the Treasury Bills or Promissory Notes issued from time to time by this Ministry in the Chinese or foreign language to the various institutions, banks or foreign firms are of numerous kinds, and it frequently happens that complications arise owing to loss or transfer of such documents by the original holders. Such a state of affairs is detrimental to the circulation of Treasury Bills as well as being injurious to Government credit.

In the Second Year of the Republic (1913), Regulations governing the Registration of Transfer or Loss of Official Salary Treasury Bills were enforced and found to be of great convenience to the holders. Similar Regulations are now to be enforced in regard to all other kinds of Treasury Bills or Promissory Notes, as follows:

(1) In the case of making a transfer of Treasury Bills or Promissory Notes, other than bearer documents, wherein the name of the Payee is specified, the original Payee himself must apply to this Ministry for sanction of the transfer, and such transfer shall become valid only after it has been duly sanctioned by this Ministry. This Ministry will not recognize as valid any transfer made in any other way. In the case of loss of Treasury Bills or Promissory Notes, the original Payee shall report the case to this Ministry and this Ministry will take such action as required by the circumstances.

(2) Unmatured bearer Treasury Bills or Promissory Notes shall not be used to meet payments due to the Government. No application for replacement of lost bearer Treasury Bills or Promissory Notes will be considered.

The above Regulations are enforced for the purpose of protecting the interests of the original holders and facilitating the work of this Ministry in dealing with such matters.

Freight Market

Messrs. Wheelock and Company write as follows in their freight market report of yesterday:

The situation in our Outward Freight markets is as follows:

TO UNITED KINGDOM AND CONTINENT

There is still a good demand for berth loading space, chiefly for seeds. Conference rates of freight on beans, peas, seeds, etc., were further increased by about 15% as from July 27.

TO UNITED STATES VIA PACIFIC AND VIA PANAMA AND SUEZ

There is a little more activity on these berths since last writing and as the tea-season is now well under way there is quite a fair amount of tea going forward both via Pacific and via Canal to New York direct.

COASTWISE

The coastwise trade can be only termed "exceedingly quiet" and there seems to be no enquiry in any direction; so far as exports from the North are concerned no great improvement can be looked for until the Autumn crops are ready for shipment but the new season's rice from River Ports should begin to move in about a month's time.

SHANGHAI, AUGUST 12, 1921

WEATHER

The very violent typhoon, which is just crossing the Loochoos, about Naha, will enter the Eastern sea. If it keeps the same direction towards N-W. and present speed, it may arrive to the offing of the Saddles tomorrow. Gales may be expected between Shanghai and Nagasaki. The typhoon signalled, East of Guam, will follow towards N-W.

BIRTH

MERRITT: On August 10th, 1921, at Nanking, to Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Merritt, a son.

The Situation In Central China

BY a presidential mandate issued on the 9th inst. the resignation of Wang Chan-yuan, Tuchun of Hupeh and Inspector General of Hunan and Hupeh has been accepted, and as his successors General Wu Pei-fu has been appointed Inspector General of the two Hus (Hunan and Hupeh) and Hsiao Yao-nan Tuchun of Hupeh. The post of Civil Governor now held by Liu Hao-tsun will, it is reported, be offered either to Tang Hsiang-ming who is credited with weakening the morale of Tuchun Wang's troops of Tien Wen-lieh, former Minister of Agriculture and Commerce.

Thus the two objects for which Chao Heng-ti, Military Governor of Hunan and Commander-in-Chief of the invading forces entered the conflict, namely, the elimination of Wang Chan-yuan and the assurance of self-government to the Hupeh people, have been partly achieved. In view of the appointments of General Wu and Commander Hsiao having been made without taking into consideration the wishes of the Hupeh people themselves, the excuse that the Hupeh people have not been accorded their full measure of self-government is available at any time as the bone of further contention.

While the duties of maintaining peace and order in Wuchang will countenance the acceptance of the Tuchunship on the part of Hsiao Yao-nan, the acceptance of the Inspector-Generalship on the part of General Wu Pei-fu is by no means certain as already Warlord Tsao Kun has on behalf of General Wu petitioned the Peking Government to revoke the appointment. The very fact that General Wu has been lingering at Loyang shows that he regards the foothold that he has already secured in the Province of Honan as being of strategic value in checking the activities of Tuchun Chao Ti of that province, who has been known to be a protege of Chang Tso-lin. The latter has been on the look-out for a long time for an important position for the notorious Chang Hsun and the vacancy of the Inspector-Generalship of the two Hus in the event of General Wu's remaining firm in his refusal to accept the new appointment, will afford the Mukden leader an excellent opportunity for pressing the Peking Government to offer the post to Chang Hsun, especially now that the plea of having some one to watch the movements of the Southern forces is invested with momentous significance. It is, however, an arrangement which the Chihli faction will vigorously oppose as the idea of having a rival officer under the very nose of Hsiao Yao-nan is totally unpalatable. It will occasion no surprise if the question of the successorship of Wang Chan-yuan leads to an open split between the Fengtien and Chihli parties whose relations have already been notably strained.

The passing of Tuchun Wang Chan-yuan from the political arena is an incident that is of more than passing interest. It adds to the mass of evidence that is accumulating to convince all thinking men that the Tuchunate system is tottering and that in the absence of popular support, the influence of a military chief, however dazzling at one time, is bound to wane and end in disaster. The case also points to the hopelessness of the Fengtien and Chihli factions coming to a mutual understanding.

In order to complete the overthrow of the Mukden chieftain, a union between the Fengtien party and the Southern forces under the control of Dr. Sun Yat-sen is as natural as it is necessary. When the military elements of the country are reduced to two rival camps, and when these camps clash in a life-and-death struggle, the chance will come for unification of military control and for a united nation. When that moment comes, it will be a blessing to the country if men of Wu Pei-fu's type, who will submit to the will of the people, are in power.

It may be well here to chronicle the events which immediately led to the resignation of Wang Chan-yuan and to place on record a brief sketch of his past career should he be lucky enough to play the role of the connecting link between the China of yesterday in which the militarist's word was law and the China of tomorrow in which the will of the people will be supreme.

The hopeless character of the struggle put forth by Wang Chan-yuan became apparent to him on the 5th and 6th inst. when he worried so much that he could not sleep. He sent the 8th Mixed Brigade to Chaolichiao to assist in putting up a stubborn resistance but a section of the brigade returned to Wuchang declaring their unwillingness to go to the front. The soldiers of the 25th Division were not prepared to do more than guard the city of Wuchang and although they were stationed in various points outside the city they were all within a radius of 50 li. Under the pretext of keeping a watch against the routed soldiers, the 97th and 98th detachments went no further than Chihfang on land and no further than Kinkow afloat. Wang was sadly disappointed that he could not rely on the Chihli reinforcements.

On the night of the 5th inst. owing to the persistent attacks of the invaders the Northern soldiers retreated from Chaolichiao with the result that both Tsa-an-ling and Puchi were abandoned. In a similar manner the Northern soldiers of the left wing also retreated from the districts of Tung Cheng and Tung Shan. When Sun Chuan-fang who was in command of the Hupeh forces saw Wang Chan-yuan on the 6th inst. he was loaded with tales of woe. He told Wang that it was useless to keep up the fighting as a very large quantity of munitions and food had been seized by the invaders whose advance had become irresistible.

Having come to his wits' end and having no confidence in the reinforcements sent by Tsao Kun, Wang felt that his best course was to quit. He made arrangements to send his family and valuables to Tientsin and his example was followed by his officers, which was responsible for an unusual exodus from Wuchang and a crop of alarming rumors. Thus came to an end the career of a Tuchun who was regarded as one of the three most powerful militarists when the conference convened by Chang Tso-lin was being held in Tientsin a few months ago.

Wang Chan-yuan is a native of Kuanhsien, Shantung, and is over sixty years of age. A graduate of the 1st class of the Peiyang Military Academy, he attracted attention by a display of military valor during the Chino-Japanese war (1894-95) in an encounter at the Yalu. He was appointed by the late Yuan Shih-k'ai to train the modern army at Hsiaochan. At that time he held the rank of a captain in command of Anhui troops. He was later made colonel and then promoted to be a brigadier general.

In the year 1911 when the revolution broke out, Feng Kuo-chang, the late president, was in command of the 1st Imperial Army. Wang Chan-yuan distinguished himself in the campaign that resulted in the recovery of Hanyang from the revolutionists on the 27th of November of that year. When the republic was formed he was appointed commander of the Second Division and was created general in 1913, in which year he was given the 2nd class Tiger Decoration. In 1914 he became military governor of Hupeh and in 1916 received the title of Hsiangho Chaing Chun and acted concurrently as civil governor.

Being of a conservative mind he has been an open opponent to the movement for self-government and made the position of civil governor untenable for Hsia Shou-kang who was nominated at the express request of the Hupeh people. Although he has given the assurance that he would rather resign than suffer the people to be further molested, he would have retired less disgracefully had his resignation taken place after the looting incidents at Ichang and Wuchang when a candid confession of his own incompetence would have been accepted as a sign of genuine repentance.

SOME SUMMER RHYMES

(Wood B. Riter sends me quite a nice letter, in which the weather is discussed and unanimously agreed—disgusting. A little rhyme in keeping is also sent by an unknown friend who signs herself—I am sure it is a her because she writes "warmly yours,"):

SUMMER STYLES

("O the little more, and how much it is."—Browning.)

"Fie, Fleurette," cried her mother (A prude),
"Your costumes approach to the nude!"
Said she: "Shanghai clothes
Might not suit Esquimaux
But with one garment more
I'd be stewed."

(Wu Pei-fu is top dog. Chang Tso-lin is defied. Wang Chuan-yuan has done a bunk.)

So Wu Pei-fu has won first place
As super tuchun ruling.
While Wang Chuan-yuan has lost all face
Because of too much fooling;
Then Chang Tso-lin, Peking defies.
And Chow Yun-wha is nervy,
—Say what you please
But things Chinese
Continue topsy turvy.

(The eternal triangle is not only connected with domesticity. Now we have a Silesian triangle.)

A triangle has got three sides,
And just as many angles,
But maskeb what Lloyd George decides
Some one or other wrankles,
About that bit of Germany
So dear to the Silesian,
The French with frowns
Would split five towns
And register derision.

* * *

(M. Briand doesn't like the idea of letting Germany have too much of her own way, and he has ideas about the Triangle and the Five Towns.)

"To finish off a wounded man
Is not what we are asking,"
Says Briand, "but we'll see he can
No more in war be basking,
For give the Germans all they want
—Five towns and a Triangle—
Then Like O. Twist
They'd not desist
But soon for more would wrangle."

(Japan is not very happy about this disarmament question of Harding's, but Col. House says that Japan is always cautious.)

Japan is not quite certain how
Disarmament will suit her,
And if there is to be a row
Would some of us out shoot ber?
But all this doubt political
To friendliness is nauseous—
And Colonel House
Has got a grouse
And says Japan is cautious.

(Bruce Hopper discusses prickly heat and gives rules how to get cool.)

* * *

Bruce Hopper gives some good advice
About the local weather,
He says "Drink water, it's quite nice,
Ban woollen garments nether,"
But one thing I would like to know—
When I am feeling tickley
Is Bruce quite sure
That water pure
Will cool the heat called prickly?

Caillaux Says Labor Has Been Betrayed

BY JOSEPH CAILLAUX
(Former Premier and Former Minister of Finance of France.)

Paris, June 29.—What are the conditions of the working class of France?

It is suffering from the high cost of living, it is suffering from unemployment. These are well-known facts. But are they all? No, indeed.

In a report made for the International Labor Conference at Brussels the eminent French economist, Charles Gide, declared that one of the principal conditions leading to economic prosperity is "the desire of the laborer to work under conditions which will induce him to give his scrupulous co-operation."

What is being done to bring about this condition in France? After having promised labor all sorts of things during the war, after leading him on to believe that peace would bring a new era of happiness which the magic wand of victory would determine, what is the laborer actually getting?

Let us see. Conservative writers are loudly protesting against a wave of laziness, which betrays they say, a general attitude of indifference. The only way to industrial peace, they think, is by the assiduous toil of each individual at his daily task. They deplore the shorter working day, legalised by the law of 1919, since, they believe, it has not resulted in increased production.

Why should this surprise us? The working class has been able only bit by bit to obtain an adequate increase in salary, increases which have not been proportionate to the depreciation in legal tender. The condition of the working class has not been improved despite all the promises made it. And why should they be eager to pile up the insolent fortunes which are spread before our eyes?

How can we hope for the willing and profitable co-operation of the working class when we allow the spectacle of unpunished and scandalous profiteering to go on.

Before 1914 social reforms were being discussed. A few had been made and others were in preparation. In advanced circles, it is the fashion today to depreciate these efforts, and certainly they were modest. The projects were not broad enough. They were well directed, however. Events should have strengthened the movement and precipitated the evolution toward industrial reforms.

What has caused such a brusque change of front?

Raymond Lefebbre, a young man of marvelous intellect, subject undoubtedly to radical ideas, as are all young persons whose spirit is bubbling over, wrote a remarkable page on this subject which we will summarise as follows:

BEFORE THE WAR

"Before 1914, the small bourgeoisie governed France. It formed the support of the higher parties, who directed it and imposed reforms suggested by the bourgeoisie to the profit of the laboring class and peasants. Opposed by party principles and rooted in the soil of clericalism, the higher bourgeoisie was estranged from affairs.

"The war has reserved the situation. While it rudely tramped over the small bourgeoisies, the higher bourgeoisie mixed in the industrial movement, thereby increasing its riches and by the power of wealth gained the point of dictating law to those whose tutelage it formerly accented but reluctantly."

The higher French bourgeoisie, which has come into power is not composed of the descendants of the 1830 or the 1848 bourgeoise, nor are they the sons of grandsons of the members of the Assembly of 1874. These certainly have come back into the ante-chambers of the flation, but they have only timidly followed the new rich who pushed them and who are the real leaders of the hour.

TEXACO

TEXACO CRATER COMPOUND

The Great Gear Lubricant

Texaco Crater Compound is a special lubricant for heavy gears and wire rope. It preserves gears; shields them from dust and dirt, prevents friction, and eliminates machinery noise. Use "Crater" on all heavy gears working under conditions of extreme pressure. It clings to gear teeth when nothing else will, but is fluid enough to allow free lubrication.

As a preservative for wire rope and chains, Texaco Crater Compound is invaluable. It forms a film of lubricant which protects from the action of weather, chemical fumes and contaminated water.

Wire rope and chains coated with "Crater" will last twice as long.

Gears lubricated with it will work noiselessly and more efficiently.
